Dear Allen:

I spoke to Foster this morning about the negative attitude of the State Department on the question of the Agency's membership on IAC. I told him this was the only definite negative reaction we have been able to discover among the members and asked him to see if it is not possible for him to change the Department's position because if unaltered it would undoubtedly block us.

I wanted you to know of this and hope that you might mention it to your brother if you are talking with him in the course of the next few days or next week.

Sincerely yours,

FROM

SUBJECT: Attached Letter from Mr. Streibert

I have never seen DCI personally with time to raise the issue of a reply to the attached. It does not seem to me to need one. However, The USIA issue is on the ^{IAC} agenda next week, ⁽¹⁹⁴⁴⁾ and DCI might be jogged as to whether he has done any missionary work with the Secretary or others in State.

Remarks:

As far as I know, the Director has not had an opportunity to discuss this matter with the Secretary of State. He does know, however, that it is coming before the IAC on the 19th.

As you know IAC turned them down today. I suspect SecI will want to consult. Heibart mally.
